SUBMISSIONS POLICY

We recommend you send at least 5 jpegs, to show the style of your artwork for Wallspace perusal. Please send submissions to art@wallspacela.com - all emails and web page links will be reviewed.

Due to the number of submissions, Wallspace will only notify artists we can best represent within 8 weeks. Unfortunately we are unable to respond to every submission due to the volume of requests. Please do not send any original artwork at this stage

- All contemporary abstract art forms will be considered.
- The art must be readily available for a six month initial period and available for sale and for rental.
- Once your artwork is accepted, a higher resolution image will be required up to 5mb jpeg. We create a separate low res image for screen / web display and the high res is stored for print only.
- Each work must be titled, dated, and include dimensions.
 - A brief one sentence statement about each image is advisable.
 - A short biography as well as a list of any exhibitions, collections, publications, reviews, articles, website(s) and web listings.
 - Your contact details.
- All submissions are subject to the Wallspace Terms of Use agreement and upon acceptance, a terms of agreement will be sent to the artist.
- Artists retain all ownership rights to their submitted work.
